Chamber calls for 'clear message' that UK is still open for business

SOMERSET Chamber of Commerce says the government must give a clear message that Britain is open for business following the EU Referendum.

Chamber chief executive Dale Edwards said it is time to get on with strategic and investment decisions, which were put on hold because of the uncertainty around the EU referendum.

The chamber says it has been uncertain times for some time, with last year's General Election and the Scottish referendum also having affected the focus on business.

Mr Edwards said: "The months of campaigning have taken their toll on businesses up and down the country.

"Now that the British electorate has decided that the United Kingdom should leave the EU, the government must provide a clear plan with timelines for the next steps, starting with clear monetary and fiscal policies to minimise the impact of any short and medium term uncertainty.

"Along with the wider British chambers network, the Somerset chamber will be calling for a swift refocus within government to make sure that business is at the heart of what happens next.

"Whether or not our politicians have the courage to take the big, tough, domestic decisions needed to create a fantastic environment for business is a question I hear again and again from business people across the county."

He called for a "clear message" from the government that the UK is open for business, and stressed that the government must also do whatever it takes to instil confidence, both domestically and internationally.

Mr Edwards continued: "Somerset businesses of all sizes and across all sectors will have questions that will need answering – questions about export procedures, the impact on interest rates, implications for workers originating in the EU. All of these, and others, need urgent attention.

"Despite the uncertainty that will continue over the coming months as we clarify exactly what our new position outside the EU looks like, we have confidence in the strength and resilience of the businesses here in Somerset and the South West.

"It is their efforts now that will help to bring the economy back on track, and the government must do all it can to support them."

Graham Knight, the chairman of Somerset Chamber of Commerce, added: "We have had a year of canvassing about the critical issue of the EU referendum and at times you cannot help but think that the machinery of government has ground to a halt, with business suffering as a result.

"I trust we can now get back to concentrating on creating the right environment for business, and indeed the UK economy, to flourish. This is more important than ever now, given the intrinsic uncertainty that comes with the country's vote to leave the EU.

"These have been uncertain times and the Chamber movement has been trying to impress on all parties the need to get back to business and previous commitments."

"The Scottish referendum, the general election and the EU referendum have all been distractions that have taken the political eye off the ball of doing the day-to-day business of government.

"Whatever your political persuasion, I can but hope that any change of Prime Minister does not lead to the main protagonists again canvassing and lobbying and forgetting what really counts."

■ SOUTH Somerset joined the national trend and voted to leave the European Union in Thursday's referendum, with 57.2 per cent against 42.8 per cent in favour of remaining. The turnout was 78.6 per cent.

Three crews called to tumble dryer fire

A TUMBLE dryer caught fire at a home in Crewkerne on Tuesday June 21st.

The alarm was raised at just before 9am to a property in Broadshand Road and fire engines from Crewkerne, Beaminster and Yeovil were mobilised.

Firefighters quickly got to work and also used a thermal imaging camera to make sure the fire had not spread at all.

"Crews ventilated the building after confirming the fire was out," said a Devon and Somerset Fire and Rescue Service spokesman.

"The cause of the fire was accidental."

SOUTH SOMERSET Chamber calls for 'clear message' that UK is still open for business

SOMERSET Chamber of Commerce says the government must give a clear message that Britain is open for business following the EU Referendum.

Chamber chief executive Dale Edwards said it is time to get on with strategic and investment decisions, which were put on hold because of the uncertainty around the EU referendum.

The chamber says it has been uncertain times for a couple of years, with last year's General Election and the Scottish referendum also having affected the focus on business.

Mr Edwards said: "The months of campaigning have taken their toll on businesses up and down the country,

"Now that the British electorate has decided that the United Kingdom should leave the EU, the government must provide a clear plan with time-lines for the next steps, starting with clear monetary and fiscal policies to minimise the impact of any short and medium term uncertainty.

"Whether or not our politicians have the courage to take the big, tough, domestic decisions needed to create a fantastic environment for business is a question I hear again and again from business people across the county."

He called for a "clear message" from the government that the UK is open for business, and stressed that the government must also do whatever it takes to instil confidence, both domestically and internationally.

Mr Edwards continued: "Somerset businesses of all sizes and across all sectors will have questions that will need answering – questions about export procedures, the impact on interest rates, implications for workers originating in the EU. All of these, and others, need urgent attention."

From the deputy editor's chair Trust in your local newspaper

LAST week I finally got round to watching Spotlight, the Oscar-winning film on The Boston Globe's special investigative team who exposed years of systemic child abuse by Catholic priests in Massachusetts – and the subsequent cover-up by the church.

It was a refreshing change to see journalists in a movie not portrayed as the "bad guys" – and reminded me why journalism was a profession I wanted to get into in the first place.

At the Academy Awards, accepting the trophy for Best Picture, producer Blye Pagon Faust said: "We would not be here today without the heroic efforts of our reporters. Not only do they effect global change but they absolutely show us the necessity for investigative journalism."

It was watching another film that inspired me in the first place – All The President's Men – which starred Robert Redford and Dustin Hoffman as legendary Washington Post reporters Bob Woodward and Carl Bernstein, who broke the story of the Watergate Scandal that led to the eventual resignation of President Nixon.

And although nothing we do here at Pulman's View could possibly compare to the work of the Spotlight team or Woodward & Bernstein, we still endeavour to aim high.

As a community newspaper, we make sure that those in public office – whether on your local town council or representing you in Westminster – are held to account.

Our industry may be struggling but the survival of newspapers is imperative.

One of the elements we bring to the mix that TV and radio can't match is the local angle. There's a big difference between regional and local, and we certainly don't have a local TV channel here in Pulman's Country.

The web, of course, can offer everything from global stories to something that just affects you and your neighbours. Social media is obviously a popular way for people to source "local news" these days (we use it as a starting point for many a story ourselves).

But such outlets as Twitter do not have fact checkers. And although we make our share of mistakes, you can trust what you read in this newspaper far more than what people may be saying online.

In the movies, reporters are so often played as the cynical, tough talking type, who will literally stop at nothing to "get the story".

But, in the main, they're just trying to do their job – making sure bad news isn't swept under the carpet by the powers-that-be and fighting for justice.

OTTERY ST MARY Celebrating independents

AN exciting new initiative is set to be launched in Ottery St Mary by the chamber of commerce to help boost local independent retailers.

Ottery Independents Weekend will see shops and businesses in Ottery working together to encourage residents to visit the local shops and businesses rather than high street chains in Exeter or shop on the internet.

'Independent's Day' was a national campaign to get the people of Britain to shop at independent shops and restaurants on July 4th (American Independence Day). Ottery St Mary is going one step further by creating a weekend to encourage people into the town with promotions, offers and events from Friday, July 1st, to Monday, July 4th.

The chamber has also introduced an Ottery Loyalty Card for the weekend.

SIDMOUTH Plans to protect seafront move forward as consultation opens

PLANS to protect Sidmouth seafront have taken a step forward after a steering group met to discuss the shortlisted options as part of a public consultation process to reach a preferred choice for the town.

The meeting of the Sidmouth and East Beach Management Plan (BMP) steering group took place on Thursday, June 16th at Kennaway House in Sidmouth – the day after the public consultation commenced on the shortlist options, which was also held at this venue.

The BMP's aims are to continue to protect Sidmouth and East beach against coastal erosion and flooding in an integrated, justifiable and sustainable way across both Sidmouth Town Beach and East Beach, as well as to reduce the rate of erosion to the east of the River Sid.

The steering group will be meeting again mid-August to discuss feedback from the public consultation, comments received from the steering group and CH2M's recommendations for the preferred options.

AXMINSTER Crisis meeting called between furious residents and developer

WAINHOMES is set to come under heavy fire at a crisis meeting with furious Cherry Tree Road and Catnip Close residents in Axminster tonight.

Axminster Town Council brokered the meeting with Wainhomes after desperate residents turned to the authority for advice and help with "serious safety concerns" over rotting fence posts and subsidence.

They did this during the June meeting of Axminster Town Council and in the debate that followed, town and district councillor Ian Hall said: "It can only be a matter of time before somebody is hurt, gardens are slipping. It seems that Wainhomes is winding up business there and they can't wait to get out."

Residents claim that fence posts, used as retaining walls, are rotten and that there is a danger of subsidence of earth into neighbours' gardens and of a walkway.

Wainhomes is said to have accepted the invitation, and the public meeting has been scheduled for 6pm in Axminster Guildhall today, Tuesday, June 28th.

Wainhomes was invited to comment, but had not come back at the time of going to press.

HONITON

Race for district seat will not affect town council business

WITH the EU referendum still fresh in the mind of the country, Honiton residents will soon be asked to return to the polls and vote in a new district councillor.

The vote was triggered last month when former Honiton mayor David Foster resigned from his position on the council citing growing work and family commitments.

Four people have put their names forward for the Honiton St Michael's vacancy on East Devon District Council, with the vote to be held in July. They are Ashley Alder (UKIP), Henry Brown (Labour), John Taylor (Independent East Devon Alliance) and Jenny Brown (Conservative). The candidate's deadline passed on Friday, June 24th.

Three of the candidates currently sit on Honiton Town Council and a spokesperson confirmed the council is determined not to let the debate spill into council business.

SEATON

Developers 'have listened' to concerns over new flats

DEVELOPERS behind plans for a prolific and "iconic" seafront development in Seaton say they have listened to local concerns by reducing its height.

Seaton Beach Developments Ltd was set up specifically to buy an empty house on East Walk called Seaton Beach, formerly Trebere.

The company consists of Axminster residents Mike Dowling and Anne Baker plus Mike and Audrey Webb, who live outside of Devon.

Their original plan was to demolish the existing building and replace it with a "stylish" 10-flat development, including a penthouse on top.

But East Devon District Council's planning department received complaints that the proposed building was too tall and out of character with the area.

The developers responded by going back to the drawing board and coming up with a plan for eight flats over four floors and a penthouse on top.

East Devon District Council aims to make a decision no later than August.

Police ask public for their views on services in new consultation

"HAVE your say on your policing service" is the message from Avon and Somerset Police and Crime Commissioner Sue Mountstevens after she launched a consultation to address the policing and community needs of the area.

Ms Mountstevens wants the views of residents, community groups, businesses and partners to inform the strategic policing priorities, which will help shape and develop the next Police and Crime Plan for Avon and Somerset.

Vulnerability, strengthening and improving local policing teams are just some of the areas that Ms Mountstevens believes should be a strategic priority for the police and she wants to hear your views.

"Everybody who makes up Avon and Somerset will have a view on what should be a policing priority in the area they live and work," she said.

"Listening to local people is the most important part of my role and it's only by hearing from you, that I can truly be your voice in policing. It's your police service so it's only right that your thoughts are represented in our Police and Crime Plan.

"Everyone has the right to be safe and feel safe in their community and I want local people to have the upmost confidence in the police. This is your chance to tell me what is important to you and I look forward to receiving your responses."

The Police and Crime Plan sets out the strategic priorities, aims and objectives for the Constabulary for policing Avon and Somerset.

People can respond to the consultation online by visiting www.avonandsomerset-pcc.gov.uk or alternatively call 01275 816377 for hard copy surveys. Copies of the consultation will also be available at police stations, libraries and on request.

The consultation closes on Tuesday, August 30th. All Police and Crime Commissioners have a statutory responsibility to produce a Police and Crime Plan.

The findings of the online consultation will be used to inform the strategic policing priorities, aims and objectives in the next Avon and Somerset Police and Crime Plan.

This will then be presented to the Police and Crime Panel for review, before being published in October.

Deaf community warned of lottery scam

POLICE would like to urge people to be aware of a scam offering lottery funding to members of the deaf community.

Avon and Somerset Police have reported one incident in which a woman was conned out £4,500 when she was contacted by someone pretending to be one of her Facebook friends.

This person told the victim about lottery funding available to members of the deaf community, but only if applicants pay a fee.

The victim transferred the money through Western Union and MoneyGram before she realised it was bogus.

DC Geoff Smith, financial investigator, said: "These despicable criminals set up a fake profile and posed as someone the victim is friends with on Facebook in order to gain her trust and take her money.

"This could happen to anyone but scammers will target the most vulnerable and older people in our community so it's important we look out for our loved ones and neighbours.

"We would always advise people to be aware of anyone who is asking you for money or bank details and never to hand over or transfer money to people if they are offering free holidays, goods or services."

Yeovil property closed down after incidents of drug dealing

POLICE have been granted a Closure Order for a property in Yeovil after incidents of drug dealing and anti-social behaviour.

Taunton Magistrates Court granted the Closure Order on 20 Mary Street in Yeovil on June 15th following an application by the local Beat Team that evidenced more than six months of criminality and anti-social behaviour linked to drug dealing.

Sgt Claire Leonard said: "Residents have endured a large amount of anti-social behaviour, which often sadly goes hand-in-hand with drug use and dealing, so much so that one resident had to move from the street.

"However, we now hope that the Closure Order gives the community some comfort and reassurance. We understand the huge impact drug crime has on the local community and we won't tolerate it."

The property has now been boarded up for three months and anyone entering the property, including the owner, could face arrest, prison or an unlimited fine. The tenant has been evicted.

Councillor Tony Lock, who chairs the Yeovil One multi-agency group, said: "This is excellent news, a closure order was the only option to protect the community and stop the suffering of residents.

"We will not tolerate drug fuelled anti-social behaviour and will use all our tools and powers to remove it from our streets. I would like to thank the Police and all the other agencies for the sustained support in achieving this closure."

Sgt Leonard continued: "We want to hear from anyone who is worried about friends, neighbours or relatives they feel might be vulnerable to drug dealers due to dependency or debt. We also want to know about anyone suspected to be housing drug dealers or allowing the supply of drugs from their premises.

"This property is privately owned and I would remind landlords that you must take responsibility for your property and your tenants. If you suspect that there is criminality or anti-social behaviour taking place at your property you need to take positive action in relation to your tenants and contact the police, or you could face having your property subject to a Closure Order!"

If you have information about suspected crime in your area, please call police on the 101 number or via the website.

Alternatively you can call the independent charity Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111. They never ask your name or trace your call and you could earn a cash reward. Always dial 999 if aPcrime is in progress.

Vandals strike at new play park

VANDALS have targeted the new play park in Ilminster shortly after it was opened to the public.

It was earlier this year when it was announced that the long-awaited improvements to the play area at Winterhay Lane were well underway with old equipment being removed and new facilities being installed.

But members of Ilminster Town Council's open spaces committee will hear this week that damage has been caused at the play area and safety matting has been stolen.

"Vandalism has happened to the new set of swings at Winterhay Park and a number of the safety matting surfaces have been pulled up and gone missing," said senior open spaces warden Ryan Gold in a report which will go before the council's open spaces committee today (Tuesday).

Councillors will be extremely disappointed at the news, as will the people who actually use the play area.

Anyone with information about the vandalism and theft of the safety matting – please call Ilminster Town Council on 01460 52149 or police on 101.

South Somerset backs Brexit as UK leaves European Union

THE leave campaign has triumphed in the EU referendum, with more people turning out to vote than in last year's general election.

In a result that was too close to call until the early hours of Friday morning, the Brexit campaign won with just 51.9 per cent of all votes cast as more than 30million people went to the polls.

But how did your area vote?

● In East Devon there was a 78.9 per cent turnout with 54.1 per cent voting to leave – 48,040 of the votes – and 45.9 per cent voted to remain – 40,743 votes.

● West Dorset received a 79.4 per cent turnout with 51 per cent – 33,267 of the votes – wanting to leave and 49 per cent – 31,924 votes – opting to remain.

There was a 78.6 per cent turnout in ● South Somerset with 57.2 per cent of voters – 56,940 votes – wanting to leave and 42.8 per cent – 42,537 votes – wishing to stay.

● Overall in the South West, 3,172,730 people came out to vote giving Brexit 52.6 per cent of the votes and remain 47.4 per cent.

Prime Minister David Cameron is to step down in October following the result as he had pushed for the country to remain. He said that “fresh leadership” was needed.

Politics professor Colin Talbot, a professor of government and Public policy at the University of Manchester, has stated that due to the result, the UK will break up, with Scotland leaving before Britain leaves the EU.

He said: “It is certainly going to trigger a prolonged period of considerable turmoil in the EU. Part of what will happen with that is that many anti-EU parties in Europe will call for referendums.

“Marine Le Pen has already called for a referendum in France. But the EU can't give Britain a good deal because then it will make other countries think they can also leave and get a good deal.

“It won't be as bad as 2007/8 recession, but it's going to be awful chaos and could take five to 10 years to stabilise.

“In the short term there will be a minor recession, long term there will be a lower GDP growth.

“Another big political aspect that nobody is talking about is Scotland, which voted to Remain. The SNP will almost certainly call another referendum.

“Technically it is the London government that will call a referendum, but there would be riots in the streets of Scotland if they were denied a new referendum.

“I think Scotland will be out of the UK before Britain leaves the EU.”

Chard woman equals record at nettle eating competition

A CHARD woman munched her way through 56 feet of stinging nettles to be placed among the top competitors at the World Nettle Eating Championships.

Naomi Harris won the women's category at the annual competition, held at the Bottle Inn in Marshwood and filmed for BBC Spotlight.

This traditional event involves competitors having to eat as many two-foot stalks of stinging nettles, which had been picked by local farm Dave Hutchings the night before, as they can in one hour.

Last year, Pete Wellman from Axminster won the trophy for the men for the third time having got through a world record amount of 96 feet of nettles. But on Saturday he narrowly lost his crown to Philip Thorne, from Colyton, who munched his way through 86 feet of nettles in the hour and regained the title he first won in 2014.

Both men were disappointed not to be the first to eat at least 100 feet of nettles but Philip said afterwards: "The leaves seemed much bigger than last year."

Leading lady Naomi managed to equal her world record total of 56 feet, which she set last year.

A huge crowd outside the Bottle Inn cheered on all the competitors throughout and they were also given plenty of encouragement by a former world nettle eating champion, Simon Slee, who acted as compere.

At the end Philip and Naomi were presented with trophies from competition sponsors Black Cow Vodka.

The event always attracts huge media interest and one national newspaper journalist,

■ ALL GONE! Naomi Harris from Chard won the women's competition of the World Nettle Eating Championships held in Marshwood

Neville Hawcock, the deputy arts editor of the Financial Times, was so fascinated he decided to travel down from London to watch.

Shortly before the start – and much to the horror of his 10-year-old daughter Esme – he suddenly decided to take part and managed to chomp through 54 feet of nettles, one of the best scores for a newcomer.

During the weekend the landlords of the Bottle Inn, Nigel and Chrissy Blake, organised a festival of real ales and cider, which were very popular with both competitors and spectators.

Old Cerdics Association enjoy record attendance at dinner

LONG before the actual event, The Old Cerdics Association of former Chard School pupils were assured of yet another record attendance for their annual dinner at Chard Rugby Club on June 18th.

Founded more than 85 years ago the association, by tradition, has held a dinner in Chard every year, except during the war years, since its inauguration in 1929.

Such is the interest and support for the group that members travel long distances, from as far afield as Cambridge and Lincolnshire, to be in Chard for this occasion and many visit their old school beforehand to meet up with old friends at the school's summer fair. There is also a strong local following.

MP Marcus Fysh was the principal guest, being the fifth successive Yeovil MP to have attended an Old Cerdics Association dinner.

Notable among those attending were former headmaster John Statesbury with his wife Chriss, making their first return as honorary life members of the OCA since they retired from the school four years ago.

The toast to the school was proposed by OCA vice-president Nigel Griffiths, a pupil at the school in the 1950s, to which headmistress Sarah Graham responded.

Floral arranging workshops mark British Flowers Week

FLOWER lovers from all over Somerset, Devon and Dorset recently supported British Flowers Week, which ran from June 13th to 19th.

To celebrate, flower arranging workshops were held at Combe St Nicholas Village Hall, near Chard, where participants learnt all the techniques they needed to make a colourful country design in a modern basket overflowing with summer blooms.

Nanette Wale, from Wadeford, said: "This was a very inspiring workshop, using a basket to create a beautiful arrangement of summer flowers. Jackie demonstrated first, then, duly motivated and ready to go, we all set to work. The results were amazing. Everyone created beautiful arrangements in splendid colours.

"It did not matter whether we were using flowers from our gardens or local growers, the baskets were equally stunning. Jackie's workshops are always useful as you learn so many new tips. And also, how to prepare flowers to make sure your arrangement lasts for as long as possible."

Louise Boffey, from Chaffcombe, added: "We all arranged such lovely locally grown flowers. Jackie always has time for everyone and was very nice and helpful. I was really pleased with the design I made."

"Everyone was so friendly; the workshop was very relaxed. I learnt so many new things, including how to line a basket and how to use a huge variety of different flowers", said Sue Smyth, from Combe St Nicholas.

Local tutor Jackie Nicholls from Ashville Design in Somerset, who ran the workshops, said: "We were all very proud to be celebrating British Flowers Week and supporting local growers.

"Despite British cut flowers representing less than 15 per cent of the £2billion worth of flowers sold each year in the UK, they are really back in fashion now.

"All the ladies who attended were really enthusiastic. The village hall was absolutely bursting with fun, laughter and beautiful blooms. I was particularly proud of those who had never been to a flower arranging workshop before - a huge well done to everyone from me."

New Zealand international cricketer helps train pupils

WINSHAM pupils had a treat last week as they had a special visitor to their weekly cricket sessions, which are run by Chance to Shine. New Zealand international cricket player Rachel Priest popped along to help out one of the regular coaches, Sophie Luff, work on bowling skills with the children. In one activity, the pupils were split into two teams, Australia and New Zealand, to see who could hit the most targets when bowling overarm. The session finished with a game and a chance for the pupils to have their T-shirts signed by a true star of the cricket world.

League of Friends hope to boost funds at annual fete

THE League of Friends of Crewkerne Hospital are hoping that their major fund-raising event of the year will give a big boost to their latest project.

The annual fete, which takes place on Saturday, July 2nd, has raised tens of thousands of pounds over the years for the hospital.

As before, many individuals, businesses and organisations from the town are lending their support, either by running stalls or donating prizes.

Members of the League of Friends have announced that they plan to raise £15,000 to £20,000 to give a facelift to the inner courtyard garden – much beloved by the patients who like to sit there and relax.

Chairman Ron Bond is hoping that this year's fete, which is being held at the hospital from 2pm to 4pm will top last year's total of nearly £1,400.

He said: "The garden is in need of some major improvements."

"The fete is such an important event during our year and we hope that the people of Crewkerne will once again give us their whole-hearted support," added his wife Teresa, who is one of the main organisers of the fete and the appeal.

■ IMPROVEMENTS: Ron Bond in the inner courtyard garden at Crewkerne Hospital

There will be musical entertainment from local group Chiff Chaff, and 30 prizes have been donated to the grand draw.

There will be a separate raffle for the prize of a ride in an Ariel car – either the Atom or the Nomad, the winner can choose – and a tour of the factory.

Station Friends brave the rain at village fete

■ EXPOSED TO THE ELEMENTS: Chairman Tony Reese sheltering from the rain in Misterton

MEMBERS of the Friends of Crewkerne Railway Station manned a stall at Misterton Summer Fete, although there wasn't much summery about the weather!

They used the opportunity to promote their projects and also brought a mini-exhibition of interesting historical facts and photos.

Secretary Gail Coleshill explained: "We keep records of all our activities and historical information in folders which were available for people to see at the fete.

"The only problem was having to cover it all up with plastic when there was a rain shower.

"We were also able to get some superb Pelargoniums from the plant stall and they have already gone in.

"So plants from the Misterton Fete plant stall will contribute to our summer planting show and make it better than ever.

The Friends have situated tubs of flowers, which they keep regularly watered, on both platforms at the station.

They keep both the active and the unused platform free of litter and smart for the use of passengers.

Members also report on any new signage that is needed, any problems from travellers, and have contributed to the comfort of train passengers by supplying more seating inside and out.

They also provide information about ongoing bus journeys and campaign to get more bus service and parking.

The Friends of Crewkerne Station would welcome new members and volunteers to help with the gardening at the station.

U3A members raise £1,350 by completing Race For Life

RAISING £1,350 for Cancer Research UK was a walk in the park for six members of Crewkerne & District University of the Third Age (U3A).

They were among 1,000 people who took part in the charity's Race for Life event at Sherborne Castle on Sunday, June 19th, which organisers hope will raise a total of £75,000.

Calling themselves the Silver Students, with an average age of 67, the ladies decided to walk the five kilometre course around the grounds of the castle. They completed the course in 55 minutes, having sprinted the last few metres to the finishing line.

The team of Joyce Richards, Teresa Bond, Ann Lewis, Denise Smith, Vivienne Stuckey and Anne Bright had originally set themselves a sponsorship target of £700.

At the time of writing, that had raised almost double this with £1,350, and they are hoping to do even better by reaching £1,500.

"It was a great morning's fun with some spectacular views, for a very worthwhile cause, and one which we are always happy to support," said Anne, who is chairman of Crewkerne & District U3A.

She added: "Almost everyone taking part was there either because they had lost a relative or a friend to cancer, or they knew someone who is being treated for cancer. And the same is true for the six members of our Silver Students team."

Each member of the team – as with all the others who were there – received a medal for taking part in the event.

Since the Race for Life run first started in 1994 in Battersea Park, London, the event has raised nearly £500million for Cancer Research UK to fund research into all 200 types of cancer."

Hinton celebrates Queen's birthday

HINTON St George First School benefitted from a fundraising event held in the village hall on Saturday, June 11th to tie in with the Queen's 90th birthday.

The Hinton Fundraisers hosted a coffee and cake morning to celebrate the Queen's birthday whilst helping to raise funds for the school. The village hall was decorated with bunting and flags and a slide show of pictures of the Queen throughout her 90 years, accompanied by music, was shown on the large screen.

A raffle and children's competitions for Best Cup Cake and Best Crown were held, with prizes donated by villagers, Our SHOP, Waitrose, Bradfords, Clinique, Lefktro and Tesco's in Ilminster. Cakes in their hundreds were baked and the village community turned out in their droves to support the event.

An anonymous donor also came forward and generously offered to match fund whatever was raised at the coffee morning, and as a result a total of £1,795.96.92 will go towards the cost of the much needed re-decoration of parts of the school.

On Friday, June 17th there was another celebration with the children of Hinton St George First School hosting an afternoon tea party for family, friends and local residents to mark the Queen's birthday.

The schoolchildren got into the spirit of the occasion by dressing in red, white and blue and helping to decorate the school with Union Jacks and handmade bunting. There was country dancing and musical performances by the children and plenty of opportunities for family and residents to look around the school and see how recent donations had already made a difference by creating a calm and bright learning environment in the school hall and corridors.

Newly appointed headteacher of Hinton St George First School, Lisa Goodland, said: "It's been a really special week, bringing the children, parents and our local community together. The support for the school has been overwhelming and as well as having fun, almost £2,000 from both events has been raised to redecorate the school."

Horton Cross hosts opens day

■ THE annual open day and garden party at Horton Cross Nursing Home in Ilminster was a busy affair. Residents, staff and visitors were entertained with live music from Take-Note (pictured below) in the lounge. The stalls indoors and in the garden were busy throughout, the cakes proving very popular.

Memorial bench unveiled to remember cricket supporters

SUPPORTERS of Ilminster Cricket Club gathered together earlier this month for the unveiling of a new memorial bench.

The ceremony took place on Saturday, June 4th at Ilminster Recreation Ground where the bench was unveiled in memory of Richard Crabb, Viv Joslyn, Billy Parsons and Pete Hurford – valued supporters and players of Ilminster Cricket Club.

It was a fitting tribute as there was a good turnout of people for the unveiling ceremony from family, friends and club supporters.

Club chairman Paul Knight, speaking on social media, said: "A massive thank you to everyone that turned out and supported the families at the presentation of the memorial bench. The families were overwhelmed by this.

"A big thank you to all the people that brought down refreshments and also the staff at Ilminster Cricket Club for their efforts.

"Ilminster is a great town and it proved just how good on Saturday."

Find out more about being a councillor

THE Mayor of Ilminster is inviting anyone interested in becoming a member of the town council to go along to find out more at an information evening.

There are currently three vacancies for councillors on Ilminster Town Council and it is expected that there will be an election in August to fill these spaces.

On Thursday, July 7th at 7.30pm in the Minster Rooms, the Mayor of Ilminster, Councillor Val Keitch, will be hosting an evening for local people to attend and find out about what is involved in being a councillor and how to take the first steps towards making it happen.

Councillor Keitch said: "If you are interested in becoming a councillor, or know someone who could be persuaded to stand for election just come along to the evening to find out more about what is involved; there is no need to book.

"We will be talking about the highs and lows of being a councillor, the sort of work the town council gets involved in and giving an overview of the election process."

To stand as an Ilminster Town Councillor you need to be British or a citizen of the Commonwealth or European Union, at least 18 years old and registered to vote in Ilminster or have lived, worked or owned property here for at least 12 months before the election.

Town councillors are local people who take an interest in what happens in the community; they have varied backgrounds they bring a wealth of knowledge and experience as well as community understanding to the town council team.

The vacancies on Ilminster Town Council have arisen following the recent resignations of Carol Goodall, Rose Neave and Sophie Storey.

Queen's birthday celebrations benefit Ilminster Memory Café

THE Ilminster Memory Café has received a £300 donation thanks to those who supported the Queen's 90th birthday street party outside the town's Tesco store earlier this month.

The Memory Café is run every other Wednesday at the Minster Rooms in Court Barton, Ilminster, between 10am and 12noon.

The café is open to anyone living with or supporting someone with the onset of dementia and it allows people to get together and support each other.

A community street party was held outside the Tesco store in Ilminster on Sunday, June 12th in which people of all ages came together to mark the Queen's 90th birthday.

It was a great event and raised around £300 for charity to be shared between Save the Children and the Memory Café in Ilminster.

The Lions Club also donated a further £150 towards the funds for the Memory Café from money they had raised during the street party.

Tesco's Ilminster community champion, Helena Jones, went along to the Memory Café last week to present the £300 to the café organiser Becky Beggs and users.

Becky said she would like to thank Tesco, the Lions Club and everyone who helped to make the street party such a success.

She said the money would be put to good use to include further Christmas entertainment, musical bingo and manicures for the café's ladies.

Tesco's Helena Jones said: "We are delighted that all of the fun we had at the street party has enabled us to make this donation to the Memory Café – which is a great group for Ilminster to have.

"Obviously I would like to thank everyone who attended the party and donated and especially to the Lions Club for giving us a £150 donation."

TV aerial man comes to the rescue on match night

THE landlady of a popular Ilminster pub last week thanked a TV aerial repair man for producing a man-of-the-match performance – just hours before England kicked-off a big match in the European Championships.

The Royal Oak in Ditton Street is a popular venue for football supporters and the pub was all set for a busy night last Tuesday for England's group match with Slovakia, which was to start at 8pm.

Everything was fine when suddenly the pub lost TV signal at 4.30pm and Royal Oak landlady Cindy Rutter suddenly felt sick as the proverbial football parrot knowing that there would be a lot of unhappy footie fans if things were not rectified.

But the Royal Oak team remained calm and and came up with a plan, drafting in Ilminster's very own Barry Watkins Aerials at short notice.

Barry weaved some of his magic and thankfully normal service was resumed at the Royal Oak – much to the relief of Cindy.

"I would just like to say a huge thank you to Barry Watkins for putting himself out to come and repair our TV system," she said.

"We wouldn't have had any pictures for the football last night. Thank you again for an excellent service.

"He is an absolute star for coming to our rescue yesterday. Small businesses like himself need credit where it is due – he was very professional."

Although Barry got the TV system back working again – not even he could inspire England to beating Slovakia, as the game finished in a frustrating 0-0 draw.

Malachi to shave head in memory of dad

AN eight-year-old schoolboy has decided to have his locks of curly hair shaved off to raise money for charity – in memory of his dad who was killed as a result of a car accident just two months ago.

Malachi Hall, of Greenfylde First School in Ilminster, wants to raise money for the Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance who helped his dad immediately after the accident by airlifting him to hospital.

Husband and father-of-three Paul Hall died following a two-vehicle crash on the B3168 near Seavington St Michael, on the outskirts of Ilminster, at around 7.45am on Monday, April 25th.

Mr Hall was airlifted to Southmead Hospital in Bristol by air ambulance, but sadly died as a result of the injuries he sustained.

But his brave son Malachi (pictured) wants to do something to support the people who tried to save his dad's life and so he is planning on shaving his hair to raise money for the air ambulance – even though mum Heather says it won't be easy for him.

"Malachi is very attached to his hair as many people who know him will know," she said.

"The air ambulance paramedics played a massive part in helping to try and save Paul's life and although this was unable to be done, they did everything they could.

"After getting his heart beating after a long time of working on him following the accident they airlifted him to Bristol where I was taken and able to spend the last moments of his life with him. For this I will be eternally grateful to them and many others who were a part of that tragic day

"Malachi would like to raise as much money as he possibly can for these people."

A Just Giving website page for donations has been set up at www.justgiving.com/fundraising/Heather-Hall3 where Malachi has already surpassed his target of £200 and raised almost £1,000. Sponsorship forms will also be available in various shops in Ilminster for those wanting to pledge their support.

The big shave day has not yet been officially confirmed, but it is highly likely that it will take place on Monday, July 25th.

Heather said: "Please, please, please dig deep and help Malachi raise as much as possible for this amazing charity."

Heather said that she would like to thank everyone at Greenfylde First School for the support it has given the family in the past two months following the tragic death of Mr Hall.

Schools compete in poetry recital

PUPILS from Ashill, Buckland St Mary, Combe St Nicholas and Winsham Primary Schools competed in their fifth poetry recital, held at the Shrubbery Hotel in Ilminster.

Sarah Cook from the Somerset Literacy Network judged their performances in front of an audience of family and friends.

Competitions were held within each individual school and the winners competed together, with first prize awarded to Ariana from Ashill for her performance of 'Breakfast Monster'.

Ashill again won the small group poem award for their rendition of 'The Murder of Richard Brown'.

The schools were presented with poetry books from the Somerset Literacy Network for their hard work.

Sarah said the standard this year was amazing, and the variety of poems chosen was quite remarkable, with poets ranging from Shakespeare to W. H. Auden, Paul Cook to Tony Mitton.

Organisers would like to thank Sarah Cook for judging the performances and to the Shrubbery Hotel for hosting the event free of charge.

The Folly Nursery goes 'global'

They've expanded to another county!

ONE of the great strengths of The Folly is the food, as they put a huge amount of effort into preparing home cooked lunches, with fresh in-

On the back of the huge success at Dalwood, The Folly now has a branch less than 15 miles away in Somerset, on the edge of Ilton, where they will be continuing their ethos of getting all the children – including babies – into the outdoor classroom.

In Dalwood the 'Mud Kitchen' is where the children prepare their own culinary extravaganzas, which will be replicated in Ilton, and Forest School sessions will also be introduced.

There are two events coming up in the under-fives calendar; Saturday, July 9th is the teddy bears' picnic at Dalwood and on Friday, July 15th there will be an open day at The Folly in Ilton. All families with under-fives welcome.

Dream come true for young artist set to exhibit in London's Mall Galleries

IT'S every young artist's dream to exhibit work in a London gallery alongside international names such as painter Sir Howard Hodgkin, ceramicist Richard Batterham and Oscar-winning film director and artist James Scott.

An 18-year-old from Chedington, near Crewkerne, will achieve that dream when she showcases her art in a special exhibition at Mall Galleries this autumn.

Isobel Soanes is one of 15 talented teenagers aged 16-18 from Bryanston School taking part in "Bryanston Today", which brings together work from current and former pupils, as well as the staff who teach them.

The school is renowned for its proud, creative tradition and has inspired generations of pupils, including Lucian Freud and Sir Terence Conran.

"This show is a chance to catch sight of the Conrans, Hodgkins and Freuds of the future and see their work at the start of their careers," said Caroline Chourou, teacher of fine art at Bryanston.

"We'll also be showing mature works by some of the famous names who went to the school. It will make for an eclectic and exciting exhibition. The work covers a wide range of styles and media, all chosen for its talent and originality."

Isobel's 3D piece features real-life body casts made in ghostly white wax and arranged in a series of stacking boxes.

"It's quite a gaunt, slightly creepy thing," she explains.

"This piece compresses figures into small spaces, like playing sardines."

Isobel is taking an art foundation degree course next year and hopes to develop a career in art.

"Bryanston Today" will be the school's third major London art exhibition and the first at Mall Galleries. As with the previous shows, the aim is to enable the Bryanston community to come together to celebrate and share with others the school's rich, diverse creative history and look to the future by inspiring current and future pupils.

The exhibition offers a selection of current Bryanston pupils an exceptional opportunity to showcase their work alongside the works of internationally renowned artists in a professional setting. Two hands-on art workshops for prep schools based on the works featured in the exhibition will also be taking place.

"Bryanston Today" is at Mall Galleries from November 8th to 13th. For further information, see www.mallgalleries.org.uk

Wildlife charity asks residents to give garden animals a home

THE Royal Society for the Protection of Birds (RSPB) is calling on people in Somerset to get involved in "Giving Nature a Home" this summer by doing at least one thing for wildlife in their gardens or outdoor spaces.

The call came after new data revealed further declines in sightings of some of the most familiar and garden species.

Results from the wildlife survey for Somerset showed only 19 per cent of people spotted a hedgehog snuffling around their garden at least once a month, 11 per cent fewer than in 2014.

Morwenna Alldis, communications officer for the RSPB South West said: "Many modern gardens may have less wild space than they used to due to decking and paving, so hedgehogs now struggle to find natural shelter in hedges, leaf piles or longer patches of grass.

"Planting a garden hedge helps enormously – the clue is in the hogs' name – or letting the grass grow longer in a corner of your garden.

"Garden hedges also provide essential corridors for hedgehogs and other wildlife to safely travel from garden to garden.

"In fact, hedgehogs need to walk for one mile or more each night in order to search for food and a mate. If you have a garden fence rather than a hedge, fear not, simply make a small hole along the bottom of the fence for hedgehogs and other small animals to use. Make it no more about 15cm wide x 12cm high for larger creatures like hedgehogs, or as little as 8cm wide x 6cm high for frogs and toads.

"You can also help Somerset's prickly critters by setting up a permanent hedgehog shelter in your garden. These can be purchased from a range of outlets including the RSPB and other wildlife charities.

"Or why not build your own home for hogs – summer is the perfect season to set it up, ready for them to move in during the autumn."

For more information, visit www.rspb.org.uk/plan

Fire and rescue service reviews progress on 'Facing the Future'

DEVON and Somerset Fire & Rescue Service hosted former chief fire and rescue adviser Sir Ken Knight to discuss progress on recommendations in his 2013 report, "Facing the Future".

In his government-commissioned review, Sir Ken published his conclusions as to how English fire and rescue services could become more cost-effective and efficient in the future.

The report found that while incidents had reduced by 40 per cent in the last decade, the fire and rescue service could achieve greater cost savings by using different staffing models and by working more closely with neighbouring fire authorities and other emergency services.

As part of the review, Sir Ken visited Devon and Somerset and the merger of the two fire and rescue services was noted as an example for others to follow in the report, having saved £4.2million between 2007 and 2012, as was the innovative work on wider community safety initiatives.

Chief fire officer Lee Howell said: "We invited Sir Ken back to Devon and Somerset to highlight the significant progress we have made locally since his national report was issued in 2013. This is part of our strategy to bring in an external perspective on our performance to reassure the public that the fire and rescue service in Devon and Somerset continues to improve year on year."

Cllr Mark Healey MBE, Chairman of

Devon & Somerset Fire & Rescue Authority, said: "We are very proud of our achievements and we are working on some innovative projects which will enable us to further maintain and improve public safety as well as becoming even more efficient and effective."

During Sir Ken's visit, Lee Howell took the opportunity to explain the work carried out in Devon and Somerset since the publication of the report and further initiatives currently underway.

These included firefighters now saving more lives by responding to medical emergencies as the service has 20 co-responding fire stations, the use of different emergency response vehicles such as

Light Rescue Pumps and the current trial of Rapid Intervention Vehicles and associated new technology

Sir Ken Knight, who served in the former Devon Fire & Rescue Service from 1985 and again in 1992, said: "I was delighted to return to Devon and Somerset three years after my review to see at first-hand the tremendous range of work that the fire and rescue service is undertaking."

"It is notable that firefighters in Devon and Somerset now save more lives from attending emergency health care support than from the traditional firefighting role. It is a credit to both and fire and rescue authority and firefighters who are serving the community in this way."

The exhibition will run until late August and museum volunteer Janet Harris said that exhibits can be added, so would love to hear from

Council newsletter to be published online

SOUTH Somerset News, the residents' newsletter from South Somerset District Council, is set for online publication in late June.

Residents will be able to view the latest newsletter on the website www.southsomer-set.gov.uk/latest-news from Thursday, June 30th. The newsletter is published every June and November.

A small number of printed copies will be available and on display at local council offices throughout the district. Residents who prefer a paper copy can pick a copy up from the Lace Mill Council Offices in Holyrood Street, Chard; the Community Office in Market Square, Crewkerne; and the Community Office in North Street, Ilminster.

Martin Hacker, communications officer at South Somerset District Council, said: "This edition will give details of our ever-popular Playday events across the summer school holidays, upcoming Countryside events at our award-winning Country Parks, the In It Together project, welfare surgeries, Universal Credit, Council Tax payments plus lots more."

"The online version of our residents' newsletter is going to be a six page edition this time because we have so much information to pack in, with lots of useful news and things to do from across the district. The paper version will remain as a four page edition because demand is smaller, but it will still be bursting with news."

The district council welcomes feedback on each edition of South Somerset News. If you wish to comment, contact the Communications Team by email on martin.hacker@southsomer-set.gov.uk or on our social media accounts @southsomer-setdc on Twitter or search 'South Somerset District Council' on Facebook. You can also call 01935 462130.

If you are unable to access the newsletter online or unable to get to a local council office, SSDC can send you a copy in the post. Call 01935 462130 to request a copy by post.

Garden centre to host vintage style tea party for Barnardo's

SOUTH Somerset residents are invited to a vintage-themed tea party at a garden centre to help raise money for charity next month.

Monkton Elm Garden & Pet Centre at Monkton Heathfield, near Taunton, is hosting a vintage 1940s inspired tea party in aid of Barnardo's on Thursday, July 7th from 3pm.

Andrew Pitman, store manager at the garden centre, said: "As part of our Summer Open Week, which runs from July 4 until 10th, we decided it would be fun to host a tea party in aid of charity. We decided on Barnardo's as it is marking its 150th birthday this year and we're very impressed with the work it does so wanted to help out in some way."

"We've decided to transform our Elm Tree restaurant into a tea party wonderland with a vintage 1940s theme. We'll be offering afternoon teas, which include unlimited tea and coffee for £6.99 per-person or £3.99 per child."

"The cakes for the afternoon tea will be donated by Ministry of Cake and our suppliers Clifton Coffee, Pyne's of Somerset, MJ Baker, Phillip Dennis and Arthur David have also donated goods for us to use to prepare food for the party."

"At the event people will be able to find out more about the work Barnardo's does and chat to representatives as well as enjoy themed music from the Lazy Swing Band from 3pm until 5pm and the Apple County Chorus at 5.30pm. We are hoping to just cover our costs and donate around 60-70 per cent of our proceeds to the charity."

There will be a variety of children's activities taking place during the event including a treasure hunt, a 'stick the smile on the Cheshire Cat' game, colouring in and the chance to make card people, rabbit masks, pink flamingos and heart paper chains.

Tickets for the party are available from the garden centre's reception desk or via www.monktonelmgardencentre.co.uk.

The donations from the event will be used to support some of the services provided by Barnardo's in Somerset.

In the area the charity is responsible for the Family Link Service, which supports children with complex health needs or life-limiting conditions and the Mandala Therapy and Play Service, which offers specialised therapeutic support to children who have experienced trauma or abuse.

Barnardo's also works in partnership with Knightstone Housing Association to deliver the Somerset Integrated Domestic Abuse Service to support families with children who have experienced domestic abuse.

Michael Hammond, Somerset Locality Manager at Barnardo's, said: "We are delighted to be working in partnership with Monkton Elm Garden & Pet Centre and thank them for their great support in setting up this fundraising event as part of our 150th anniversary."

"Some people might be surprised to know that Barnardo's works with hundreds of families and children on a weekly basis in Somerset. We are often inundated with requests for help and the money raised by the tea party will go directly into our local budget and make a difference to families and children in the community."

During the Summer Open Week customers will receive double loyalty points on their members card and can enjoy a barbecue every day from 12noon until 4.30pm on the restaurant patio.

There will be a variety of offers throughout the week as well as gift food tastings and the chance to claim a free plant worth £6.99.

To find out more, visit Monkton Elm Garden & Pet Centre, which is located just off the A38 at Monkton Heathfield near Taunton. Alternatively, call the garden centre on 01823 412 381, visit www.monktonelmgardencentre.co.uk, log on to www.facebook.com/Monktonelm or follow the company on Twitter by visiting www.twitter.com/Monktonelm.

Sign up to volunteer for reading challenge

SOMERSET County Council is calling on people to sign up as volunteers for this year's Summer Reading Challenge.

Last year almost 100 people volunteered with Somerset Libraries to help encourage children to read during the summer holidays, a time when a child's reading habits typically reduce.

This year's theme is 'The Big Friendly Read' celebrating the 100-year anniversary of Roald Dahl.

Volunteers, who should be at least 13 years of age, will get involved in lots of activities to help inspire children to read six books over the summer holidays.

Last year's volunteers found themselves designing craft activities and creating displays for the library walls as well as the day-to-day work of helping the children to find books.

Volunteers will also be responsible for registering children for the Summer Reading Challenge and recording and celebrating their progress with stickers, certificates and medals.

Councillor David Hall, Cabinet member with a responsibility for libraries, said: "Somerset has an amazing network of hardworking volunteers and we would love you to come forward and do the same for our libraries this summer."

"If you have a love and passion for books and reading why not come forward to share that with a younger generation? Your inspiration could be just what that child needs to develop a lifelong love of reading."

People all over Somerset have been expressing an interest in volunteering, with applications already flooding in.

If you would like more information and an application form, visit your local library or go to www.srchallenge.weebly.com. The closing date for applications is July 10th.

Bowen Therapy and Energy Healing

Melanie Philip

BOWEN THERAPY & ENERGY HEALING

"Chains of Habit are to light to be felt until they are too heavy to be broken"

WE as human beings are truly creatures made up of habits. If you take some time to observe the way you think, the way you move the way you behave, the way you talk, you will see that many of your moments are very similar and repetitive.

This is also true of our energy it forms into patterns and grooves that although one day may have served us well, but is it still true for you today or is it proving detrimental to your health and wellbeing?

Bowen Therapy which works very closely alongside Energy Medicine works to bringing awareness to the habits of your body, your energies and the habits of your mind as all three of these weave together and are closely intertwined.

Many energy behaviours that appear irregular, without logic, or even counter to good health are leftover habits that once served a purpose but are now counter - productive.

Energy Medicine combines concepts and procedures from ancient healing and spiritual traditions with contemporary scientific understanding of health and healing. It can be used both as a complementary practice and as a health support system in its own right. It is at the cutting edge of both clinical and scientific understanding of how better to support health and healing and it reaches into the very heart of being human.

To learn more about this revolutionary combination of body and energy work and to receive an energy assessment please call Melanie 07715952896

"In every culture and in every medical tradition before ours, healing was accomplished by moving energy."

Stress describes the feelings people experience when the demands made upon us are greater than the ability to manage them

HELPING you to take control of your life.

Stress describes what most people experience when the demands made upon individuals are greater than the ability to manage them. People can feel overloaded, under tremendous pressure and feel tense or emotional.

Stress affects everyone, young and old and is a completely normal reaction that will be experienced by everyone from time to time when faced with new or challenging situations.

External stressors are sources of stress that we are aware of around us, these can include traumas, life experiences or simply daily hassles. Internal stressors are the sources of stress that are inside us and are often the most common sources of stress. They are the thoughts and feelings that pop into the head and cause unease, these can include unrealistic expectations, uncertainties, low self esteem and apprehensions.

Podiatrist / Chiropodist Lindy Parry

I HOLD my private chiropody clinic at Townsend House Surgery in Seaton.

I offer a range of treatments from a simple nail cut to nail surgery, and each treatment plan is priced accordingly.

The nail cutting only service is a shorter appointment and is ideal for those that don't have any other foot care needs. Others like to alternate nail cuts with chiropody treatments as it best suits their requirements. I always aim to work with the patient to find the best treatment plan to suit each individual. Patients feet are then monitored during treatment so that changes can be made should the need arise.

Diabetic patients who attend for chiropody will also have a diabetic foot assessment carried out during their first treatment, and will then be monitored and re-assessed as necessary.

My chiropody clinics are available to anybody seeking help with their feet and Townsend House and I look forward to welcoming you.

Bookings can be made by calling 01297 22956.

The work place is also known to be a big influence in stress. A study found that more than half of people in work suffer from stress over a period of a year, and statistics show that a quarter of workers have taken time off sick due to stress and that stress is the leading cause of sick leave. Common causes of stress at work include; workloads, long hours, responsibilities, role expectations, bullying or harassment, lack of job security, poor working environment, and lack of support.

Stress can manifest itself as many different symptoms, ranging from physical to psychological and behavioural, and people may experience these to varying degrees. Physical symptoms can include; increased heart rate, sweaty palms, muscle tension, sleep disturbance, fatigue, vomiting, change in breathing patterns, dry mouth, headaches, nausea or dizziness, indigestion or heartburn and sudden weight loss or gain. Psychological symptoms can include anxious thoughts, irritability, low self esteem and confidence, inability to concentrate, feeling fearful, feeling unable to cope, difficulty making decisions, feeling negative and lack of interest in life, feeling alone, loss of creativity, withdrawal, frustration and confusion. Behavioural symptoms can include interrupted or lack of sleep, use of drugs or alcohol, changes in appetite, avoiding situations, changing habits, nail biting, teeth grinding, neglect of physical appearance, lack of communication, putting off difficult jobs and giving excuses.

The first step in helping to manage the stress that you experience is to recognise what is happening is a natural response, then changing it. Michelle Hague is here to help you take control of your life.

Clinical Hypnotherapy can help to reduce stress and cognitive behavioural therapy and mindfulness have all been used to treat it. For more information or to see if Michelle can help you call 07761773563.

Traditional Acupuncture Val Davis

Acupuncture can improve and maintain health and energy and enhance a sense of well-being

ACCORDING to traditional Chinese philosophy, our health is dependent on the body's motivating energy (qi) moving in a smooth and balanced way through a series of channels beneath the skin.

Acupuncture can affect the quality of qi, your body's vital energy, by the insertion of very fine needles into specific points along these channels. This stimulates the body's healing response and restores natural balance. Treatment is aimed at the root cause of your condition as well as your main symptoms. This approach helps with resolving your problem and enhancing your feeling of well-being. You may notice other nagging problems resolve as your main health complaint improves.

The type of conditions that I mostly see in my clinics include the following: arthritis, back pain and sciatica, poor circulation, low energy levels, hormonal/menopausal symptoms, pregnancy management, fertility problems, weight management, and addictions such as smoking. However, you don't have to be ill in the conventional sense to benefit from acupuncture, sometimes people come to see me because they are feeling low, unwell in themselves, or maybe not sleeping as well as they would like to.

Professional Acupuncturists spend at least 3 years training at degree level to become an Acupuncturist. We are then entitled to join the British Acupuncture Council and to use the letters Lic.Ac., B.Ac.C after our names. We also have public liability and professional indemnity insurance. Many of us have also studied at post-graduate level and are constantly updating our skills and experience.

Greenshutters Nurseries & Garden Centre

GREENSHUTTERS Nurseries & Garden Centre is a family run business nestled in the heart of the Somerset countryside. It is open 7 days a week and stocks an extensive range of plants. The Garden Centre has completely changed in the last few years with the layout being completely re-designed. There are new entrances from the road and into the Plant Area and the old-fashioned wooden greenhouse has been restored to its former glory with its bright, white painted wood. Most of the plants are now on tables so you don't have to bend down to look at them and the layout has been designed to make the walk around the plant area enjoyable.

This year Greenshutters Garden Centre is stocking a much larger range of herbaceous perennials and roses, including new and unusual varieties. There is also a new range of quality garden benches dotted among the plants, so you are welcome to wander around the garden centre and take a rest as you go. You can even sit and enjoy the view over Taunton Vale and the Quantocks.

The business also incorporates EVER-

GREENHEDGING.co.uk, one of the largest stockists of evergreen hedging plants in the country. Thousands of plants are grown every year on the nursery from small to large, mature hedging plants; the best sellers being Laurel, Leylandii, Photinia 'Red Robin' and Portugal Laurel. These are delivered locally or nationwide or can be collected from Greenshutters Nurseries and Garden Centre.

Greenshutters is run by Dr Roger Eavis, who bought the nursery in 1998 and the business has grown steadily every year since then. "We pride ourselves on good customer service and advice, good quality plants and I hope we have created a pleasant place to wander and enjoy the plants," says Roger, "We have a great team of staff who are always willing to help and give advice". Greenshutters Nurseries and Garden Centre is well worth a visit.

Eden Garden Development

Eden Garden Fencing and Landscaping

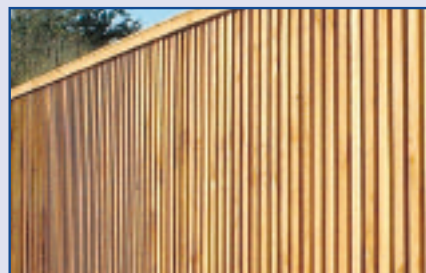

AT EDEN Garden Fencing and Landscaping based in Seaton, Devon we have been building and installing quality Fencing, Gates and Decking, along with Landscaping, for some 15 years. This makes finding a Fencing Contractor simple by providing for all clients' requirements, large and small locally. The timber products side of Landscapers, Eden Garden Developments, offers a friendly, professional, integrated service and the Seaton, Devon base covers a 30 mile radius.

A timely example, given the present gusty conditions, is Garden Fencing, where this can be replaced or repaired, depending upon condition and the budget available. This can be either Close Board, Panel (with or without Trellis), Post and Rail or Picket Fencing. Eden Garden Fencing and Landscaping also supply and fit Gates (see insets).

Whilst we take pride in installing robust and durable fencing products, "cost leadership" is still at the forefront of the business, whilst keeping quality and the principles of design foremost. Much of the work can be done during Autumn and Winter when the ground is less compacted and this time is also perfect for renovating the garden generally. So by Spring many garden improvements can be ready to be enjoyed.

There is now a dedicated Timber Products website, www.edengardenfencing.co.uk, giving examples of the range and quality of workmanship. Additionally, information can be obtained by calling 01297 23596 (mobile 07977 415446) or visiting the general web pages at www.a1-environmental.com

It's the time of year when we Brits prepare to demonstrate our bravery, as we brace ourselves - no matter what the weather throws at us - to dine al fresco.

Ready to battle with the barbecue and wrestle unwieldy picnic tables, folding chairs and wobbly parasols?

You betcha - because nothing will deter us from enjoying that heady combination of good food and fresh air. Indeed, a recent survey by Karcher saw 80% of respondents state they'll persevere with plans for dining outdoors, regardless of showers or storms.

Nature, of course, may be beyond our control, but there's no excuse for a shabby table setting, as designers have transformed picnicware - once the poor relation of tableware - with stunning designs that make them suitable for use indoors and outdoors all year round.

So even if the skies let you down, at least make sure your setting is a feast for the eyes. And what better time to get cracking than National BBQ Week (May 30-June 4)?

We've grilled the foodie experts for their top tips...

FLORAL FEAST

Pretty floral patterns in soft shades conjure a country garden look, while bright blooms can evoke a sunny Mediterranean style.

"You can't beat an al fresco meal in a beautiful country garden. When my husband and I first started living together, I made a feast in our garden and got a violinist to come and play his favourite classical music. It was a pretty special date night," says Natasha Corrett, 33, creator of the Honestly Healthy foodie website, and author of Honestly Healthy In A Hurry (Hodder & Stoughton, £25).

"I keep food as simple as possible, with dishes such as Middle Eastern sweet potato salad, wild rice citrus and roasted radish salad, and beetroot burgers," she explains.

As for the settings: "I like a casual, informal look, with cutlery in kilner jars, so people can help themselves. My favourite tablecloth is white, with 'Healthy' hand-painted in huge green letters, [£375] from Summerill & Bishop."

TABLE TREATS

Marks & Spencer has a super range of melamine tableware to suit a traditional country garden tea party. Choose from the flower-scattered Spring Bloom designs, or the delicately patterned pink and white Rosalie collection, with side plates from £6 each. For a romantic occasion, a Spring Bloom 2 Person Wicker Heart Hamper, including plates, wine glasses, cutlery and table accessories, is a steal at £45. Their vibrant Peru melamine floral range is also a real winner: Salad Bowl, £8; Side Plate, £3; Round Tray, £15.

My favourite collection is Collier Campbell's Flowerdrop melamine range, featuring retro-style blooms on a white and aqua background: Dinner Plate £7; Side Plate, £6; Bowl, £6; Tumbler, £5. And for a luxury touch, consider a Ribbed Leaf Bowl, with matt nickel finish, £33, In-Spaces.

OUT OF THE BLUE

Blues are peaceful colours, conjuring sunny skies, glittering seas and lakes - which will raise cheer even if the weather isn't co-operating!

"Nature offers what the indoors can't - natural beauty. I love the combination of water and a lush green landscape, so being beside a lake, an ocean, a river or a pond is my perfect setting for a picnic meal," says New Zealand-born chef Peter Gordon, author of Savour: Salads For All Seasons (Jacqui Small, £25).

"My most memorable al fresco meal was cooking and eating freshly caught sea-food and summer fruits on a boat jetty at beauty spot and wildlife haven Waterfall Bay, in Marlborough Sounds, New Zealand. Everything was perfect, from the weather to the food; I thought I'd died and gone to heaven. "I favour a rustic look for a table, with a plain white linen tablecloth, candles, even during the day, and definitely chairs with backs, even if they're canvas, because comfort is all."

TABLE TREATS: Painting walls, fences and furniture in blue shades will set the scene, and Cuprinol's Garden Shades range includes some beautiful blues, such as Iris and Forget-Me-Not, £23.49 for 2.5L.

Talking Tables makes creating stunning settings easy, and their Coastal collection is well-priced and attractive. A stripe or spot design Bone China Mug, £8.50; Melamine Plate, £5.50, and Paper Lanterns, £10 for pack of three.

House of Fraser's Linea Home range has an appropriate seaside-inspired Regatta collection, with fish design mugs, bowls and plates, currently on sale (so snap them up fast!) from £2.50 each, House of Fraser. Enjoy a clear horizon with blue Sky Coasters, £16 for set of four, Barnaby & Co.

▲ Flowerdrop Melamine range, dinner plate 7; side plate, 6, platter, 8, bowl, 6, and tumbler, 5, all available from Collier Campbell. PA Photo/handout.

HOT HOUSE TABLE

Turn up the temperature with a sultry setting, full of lush green foliage and tropical birds.

"I'm hooked on eating outdoors because it feels so liberating not to have four walls around you. My forthcoming wedding will be held in Puglia, Italy, followed by an outdoor banquet," says Shirin Kourous, who's co-authored, along with business partner Yasmine Larizadeh, The Good Life Eatery Cookbook (Ebury Press, £20). "We will be in the hilltops, surrounded by olive groves and looking out over the coast. I've already had a highly enjoyable tester session with family and friends, so I know it's going to be perfect."

"The menu will be just like our food - healthy, delicious and featuring dishes from our new book, inspired by a melting pot of cultures, from Mexican to Californian and Iranian.

"My table style is simple. I hate fuss, so sometimes I'll have just a table runner, otherwise a linen or cotton cloth, lots of fresh flowers in jugs, bowls of fruit, and pretty glassware."

New venue added to Concerts in the West circuit

Oliver Wass and Luba Tunnicliffe

FOR its July concert tour, Concerts in the West has added a new venue - The Dance House in Crewkerne - to its selection of distinctive arts centre venues in Ilminster and Bridport.

Audiences across the border in West Dorset and East Somerset now won't have so far to travel to see the supremely talented young harpist Oliver Wass perform in partnership with the highly accomplished viola player Luba Tunnicliffe.

Both Wass and Tunnicliffe are brilliant, award winning musicians whose outstanding abilities has won them scholarships to the prestigious Guildhall School of Music & Drama. They are both already experienced soloists with a string of concerts at top venues to their names.

Oliver Wass has a First Class Honours degree from the University of York where he was awarded the highest ever final recital mark at the University, as well as the Blake music prize. He has won many other competitions, including three concerto prizes in 2014 alone and is now in his first year studying on a full scholarship at the Guildhall School of Music & Drama.

A former scholarship student at the Guildhall, Luba Tunnicliffe won the Max and Peggy Morgan Award in 2012 with the Bartók Viola Concerto and was the viola soloist in Mozart's Sinfonia Concertante with Alexander Janiczek and the Guildhall Chamber Orchestra at the Milton Court Concert Hall in 2014.

Oliver Wass and Luba Tunnicliffe perform at Ilminster Arts Centre on Friday, July 15th at 8pm. Tickets are £15, and a pre-show supper is available for £13 but must be pre-booked. To book call 01460 55783 or visit www.themeeting-house.org.uk.

The duo will then play at The Dance House, Gouldsbrook View, North Street, Crewkerne on Saturday, July 16th at 7.30pm (doors 6.45pm). Tickets are £15, available in advance by emailing concertsinthewest@gmail.com

A thrilling evening of Pop, Rock, Motown, Gospel and World Music

THE COURAGE To Sing East Devon Choir is thirty people strong now and has been going for just over a year. You don't need to be an experienced singer to be in this choir, you just need to want to experience the uplifting feeling of the great music the choir sings. There are no auditions and it meets weekly during term times in Kilminster, East Devon.

This is a special concert for ARC a registered Axminster based charity which is completely self-funded by donations and community action like this concert. ARC operates a counselling service through The Axminster Medical Centre supporting local residents seeking help through difficult and challenging times of profound change and loss.

With great pleasure The Courage To Sing welcomes the very fantastic RD&E Hospital staff choir, appropriately called The Rhythm Of Life, to be special guests at ARC Axminster Benefit Concert on Wednesday, June 29th. You can expect to be rocking in the isles with an uplifting and inspiring performance from them. Both choirs show what is possible from ordinary non-singers some of whom had absolutely no experience of singing in a choir before they joined either of these choirs.

The Courage To Sing choir has just finished recording a CD from which profits of copies sold at the concert will also go to ARC.

The choir's musical director is independent recording artist Lorrain de Peyer who also offers musical team building courses to local organizations and corporation's staff and guests wanting to experience the benefits of singing and how it can transform groups in a positive way. Please come and support us at this fun concert not to be missed if you like a good rock music choir.

Tickets for the concert this Wednesday, June 29th at 7.30pm are £5 in advance (from Archway Bookshop) or £7 at the door. The concert takes place at Colyford Memorial Village Hall, Swan Hill Road, Colyford.

■ The Courage To Sing East Devon Choir meets every Monday evening from 7-8.30pm during term time at Kilminster Village Hall. For more details visit www.thecouragetosing.co.uk, call 01297 792874, or email info@thecouragetosing.co.uk

CLOKs performance highlight the plights of the people of Chard in the First World War

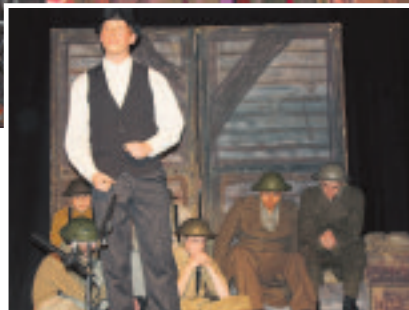

'A KISS Card from Walter', written especially for CLOKs by June and Dave Walsham, is about real people from Chard and all the brilliant things Chard did during WW1.

In collaboration with Chard Concert Brass, this is a show that will become part of Chard's history. Produced and directed by Maria Farey, this show will be moving, honest and at times extremely sad but this group of delightfully talented young people will also find a way of bringing out the happiness, comradeship and love from within these stories. A huge amount of work has been put into this production from lots of different people. Over 200 costumes will help to transport our audience members into 1914 along with the brilliant lighting, sound and set. Despite having GCSEs and A Levels around this time, our cast members have showed commitment and loyalty to this society, which it is clear to see they all love being a part of. Performances take place on Wednesday, June 29th, Thursday, June 30th and Saturday, July 2nd. Unlike other years, there will be no performance on Friday, July 1st, but two performances on the 2nd - a matinee at 2.30pm and an evening at 7.30pm.

Tickets, £8 for adults and £5 concessions, are on sale from Barron's, Chard. Performances are in the Guildhall, Chard.

We look forward to seeing you there!

Come alone or bring a group

JUNE HAS been a busy month for group visits to the Honey Farm. We have been pleased to welcome members of the Feniton & Buckereil W.I. and the Tuesday Club as well as our regular groups of beekeepers on courses. We've also hosted birthday teas and friends and families looking for a beautiful, peaceful venue for a happy, informal, get-together. Several people have adopted us as their own special place, a haven of peace where they can drop in regularly to unwind and re-charge their batteries in this busy world.

Happiness abounds at the Honey Farm, everyone who comes here has a smile on their faces.

If you come alone you will not be lonely and may well be drawn into conversations which often bounce around the whole tearoom, or you may prefer to sit and have a quiet chuckle at all you hear. At any rate, as soon as you step in you will realise that this is no ordinary tea room.

By coming here you are part of the Honey Farm family and will soon feel our special warmth enfolding you.

We strive to create an atmosphere of beauty, peace and happiness and you, our customers, make it all worthwhile, so come along and see us, on your own or with a friend.

The bees have had a difficult June with uncertain weather and some crops not doing as well as they should have but we still have some delicious honey for you to enjoy.

The garden is popping out into colour everywhere you turn and by popular request we have started selling pollinator plants.

Come and visit us soon, we'll be looking out for you! Blackbury Honey Farm, near Blackbury Camp, Southleigh. Ex24 6JF 01404 871600. Visit the website www.blackbury-farm.co.uk

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT ILMINSTER ARTS CENTRE THIS JULY

TIME flies when there's a deadline approaching! Yes, artists we are talking about you! The deadline in question is 16 July, which is the last chance for local artists to submit entries to the Annual Ilminster Open Competition. Selected works are displayed in the Art Gallery throughout August and there are £850 worth of prizes to be won, plus a winner's exhibition in 2017. So don't delay, pick up an entry from the Arts Centre or download one from our website.

Through July the gallery will be showcasing work by Somerset artist, Nancy Farmer. Taking inspiration from the medieval Bestiaries, Nancy has illustrated some of the fantastical beings who inhabit the levels and moors near her studio: pollarded dryads, rhine maidens, flying pigs and many more! Also on show will be her 'drawings from memory', recalling her wild swimming experiences. If you don't know Nancy's work already, come and discover her distinctive and hugely enjoyable world view at the preview on Sunday 3 July, 3–5pm, and meet with Abigail Willis

Nancy at the same time.

We have three very different jazz concerts lined up in July, starting with a gig that for traditionalists. The Pedigree Jazz Band will perform their 'Tribute to Trad' on Friday 1 July, playing some of the tunes that were the soundtrack to the coffee bars and clubs of the 50s and 60s. On Friday 8 we welcome a precociously talented young jazz pianist, Matt Carter, and his quartet. Matt is a protégé of Arts Centre regular Craig Milverton and is fast becoming a name to watch. His special guest will be Martin Dale, the South-West's top saxophonist. Craig himself will be in residence on Friday 22, when his trio presents a tribute to the Gershwin brothers.

Vocalist Laura Collins and guitarist Nigel Price complete the line up for what promises to be a magical evening.

One of our most experienced textile tutors, k3n, returns on Friday 7 for Stitch and Flip. This workshop is a great chance for complete beginners as well as more experienced sewers to learn this versatile technique for piecing fabric together to create cushion covers, table runners and quilts. Bring your own sewing machine, and fabric if you have it. On Thursday 14 tutor Claire Anderson will lead a fascinating new workshop, 'Dream Catch Wall Hangings'; based on the traditional native American dream catcher this workshop involves weaving, and applique techniques. Come along and create a really unusual decorative piece for your home. Children's Art Chest returns on Saturday 23, with a new tutor, Margaret Micklewright. Margaret is an experienced teacher and this is an art class for young artists over 8 who want to develop their drawing and painting skills.

Some folk still don't realise that on their doorstep, they have a wonderful, fully equipped Cinema with a seven metre roll down screen and top of the range, digital cinema projector with bespoke surround sound system made by top British sound company MC2 of Honiton!

There are a great variety of films on offer throughout the summer from our special £3.50 monthly Nostalgic Cinema, (next show is 'Seven Brides for Seven Brothers') to "Sing Street" an electrifying coming-of-age film featuring a memorable soundtrack with hits from The Cure, Duran Duran, and The Police.

EARLY June saw the closing stages of the David Hall's 30th Anniversary Celebrations when on Friday, 3rd we welcomed the incredibly talented Welsh band, 9Bach. This group has taken traditional Welsh Folk songs and reworked them onto a spectral and haunting sound canvas. A totally unique mix of the atmospheric, evocative and emotional hybrid of the Folk tradition and contemporary influences ensured this was a performance long to be remembered. 9Bach was supported by a young duo called Twelfth Day who also hail from Wales, and are really talented. Certainly an act to watch for future stardom!

Saturday, June 11th saw the welcome return of Crewkerne-based Reg Meuross, who performed with Wiltshire artiste, Jess Vincent. These two highly respected singer/songwriters combined their distinctive talents in a charming and intimate evening of Folk and Country-tinged original and traditional duets. This really was a night of great material, brilliantly played. The evening featured both artistes performing solo as well as duets. A memorable event with two artistes who will no doubt be back in the not-too-distant future.

On Saturday, June 18th we held Petherton Folk Fest, which is now in its 5th year.

Guess what? - we once again had a totally dry day and welcomed larger crowds than ever! We also had more music and dance than in previous years, with greater use of all our venues. There were too many highlights to mention individually but our desire to improve the quality of the day's programme certainly paid dividends. From the opening procession to the end of the Fest, this clearly was a day enjoyed by all. A big "Thank You" to our sponsors – South Somerset District Council, South Petherton Parish Council and local company, Probiotics International Ltd - committee members and volunteers, without whom this event would not happen. And here is an early date for your 2017 diary - we will be back on Saturday 17th June next year!

JULY at The David Hall will be quieter than usual, with just two visiting musical events.

Firstly, on Friday 1st, we welcome back - after a 14-year absence - Steve Ashley, who is one of British Folk's finest singer/songwriters. His songs have been performed by a legion of Folk artistes, including Wizz Jones, Phil Beer and St Agnes Fountain. Since 1974, Steve has consistently melded tradition with innovation and delivered intelligent and inspired English poetry, amid distinctive melodies. Steve is a fantastic live performer who deserves a really large audience.

The month ends on Sunday 31st with a 'Chance to Dance' performance by Scotland's very own Shooenliffy. They are one of the headliners at Sidmouth Festival on the Saturday and will be with us the following day. I am still pinching myself that this is really happening! Being one of Folk music's biggest names means they are bound to be a sellout! As I am writing this, some tickets are still available - but please book soon and note the start time of 7.30pm. This band has travelled the globe and the only possible problem will be fitting all seven members onto our stage! But worry not - this will be done, and we are sure to have another long-to-be-remembered night!

Happy listening to you all, Pete Wheeler

5 TIPS FOR ALTERNATIVE HEATING SYSTEMS

1. HEAT pumps are one environmentally friendly way to heat your home. Ground or air source heat pumps are most popular, as water source heat pumps aren't practical unless you have a lake, river or stream in your garden. Ground source heat pumps extract warmth from the earth and use it to heat your home or hot water. The (above-ground) pump is connected to a series of pipes (the ground loop) buried in the garden and can be used all year round, although you may need a back-up heating system in winter.

2. Air source heat pumps take heat from the air outside and use it indoors. They're either air-to-air pumps, which produce warm (and also cool) air and circulate it through fans, or air-to-water pumps, which supply your home's (wet) central heating system. Air source heat pumps can be less effective when it's colder than -5C, so another form of heating again may be necessary in winter.

3. If your home is heated by radiators, they won't get as hot with a heat pump as they would with a boiler - you'll need to have them on for longer or replace them with more powerful ones. The perfect partner for a heat pump is wet underfloor heating because both work at lower temperatures, but this type of underfloor heating isn't particularly easy to retrofit.

4. Biomass boilers are another eco heating option, ideal if you want to reduce your carbon dioxide emissions and have access to a regular supply of wood. These boilers burn wood chips, pellets or logs and can be used for central heating and hot water. The Energy Saving Trust (www.energysavingtrust.org.uk) says that an automatically fed pellet boiler for an average home costs £9,000-£21,000, including installation, so it's not cheap. However, if you replace an older gas heating system with a biomass system, you could save up to £360 a year, or up to £990 a year compared to an old electric heating system, according to the Trust.

5. If you want to generate your own electricity and have a sunny roof or wall, solar photovoltaic panels are worth considering, but you could fit solar thermal panels, which heat your home's water, instead. According to the Energy Saving Trust, installing a typical solar water-heating system costs around £3,000-£5,000, but the savings you make will be moderate. As well as the solar panels, you'll need a boiler or immersion heater to give you additional hot water and sometimes make the water heated by the panels hotter, especially in winter. You may also have to change your boiler and hot-water cylinder to ones compatible with the panels.

PRODUCT OF THE WEEK

HAVE maximum control over your boiler with the Honeywell Sundial RF2 Pack 2 Wireless Timeswitch (£159.49, Screwfix), which can be used on existing systems (it brings them into compliance with Building Regulations Part L), as well as new installations. You get both a wireless-enabled programmer (to be fitted by a qualified electrician) and a wireless room thermostat, which communicate with each other wirelessly and offer so many settings you're spoilt for choice. For example, you can program your heating and hot water differently every day to whatever suits you and your lifestyle. The Honeywell has a holiday mode, which is perfect for this time of year and ensures you don't waste heating and hot water when you're away, while the Extra Hour function enables you to switch the heating or hot water on for up to three extra hours without altering your usual settings, which could be very useful in winter.

HOW-TO TIP

USE a heatproof metal paint to paint radiators, as standard metal paint may blister. If you're using white, make sure it's a good radiator paint, such as Ronseal Stay White Radiator Paint in Brilliant White (£15.74 for 750ml, B&Q), otherwise it will discolour. Radiators paints are heatproof and designed not to yellow when they get hot, so your radiators should stay white for the long term.

The new Mercedes-AMG GT R: Developed in the "Green Hell"

FROM the world's most demanding racetrack directly onto the road: Never before has Mercedes-AMG packed so much motorsport technology into a production vehicle than into the new AMG GT R. The front-mid-engine concept with transaxle, the twin-turbo V-8 engine rated at 430 kW/585 hp, the extensively modified suspension, the new aerodynamics and the intelligent lightweight construction lay the foundations for an especially dynamic driving experience. Even from afar, the exclusive "AMG green hell magno" special paintwork leaves no doubt as to the sports car's origin, having spent most of its development time in the "Green Hell" of the Nürburgring racetrack. Wider front and rear wings allow an increased track width for optimum grip and even higher cornering speeds. The new front fascia with active elements, the large rear aerofoil and the new rear fascia with double diffuser enhance aerodynamic efficiency and help ensure optimum grip. The lightweight forged wheels shod with cup tyres as standard are likewise designed for maximum driving dynamics. The same applies to other new features such as the active rear-wheel steering, the nine-way adjustable traction control system and the adjustable coil-over suspension with additional electronic control. What is more, the new AMG Panamericana grille emphasises the unique standing of the AMG GT R. Its characteristic form with vertical fins celebrated its world premiere on the Mercedes-AMG GT3 customer-sport racing car and now for the first time features on an AMG production vehicle.

Mercedes-AMG continues to grow and is expanding the top end of its product range with the introduction of the new AMG GT R. "Our sports-car and performance brand AMG has its roots in motorsport and, ever since its formation, has repeatedly faced up to the competition on the racetrack. These genes are particularly prevalent in the new AMG GT R. Boasting a wealth of technological innovations, the new top-of-the-range model is proof of the close collaboration between our constructors of racing cars and road-going vehicles," states Professor Thomas Weber, Member of the Board of Management of Daimler AG, responsible for Group Research and Mercedes-Benz Cars Development.

"With the new AMG GT R, we have reached the next level of driving performance. This road-going sports car with motor-racing genes and innovative technical solutions offers an ultimate driving experience that allows people to feel our motorsport origins in every fibre. It combines the driving dynamics of our AMG GT3 racing car with the everyday practicality of the AMG GT. Those with petrol in their veins will be thrilled by the radical longitudinal and lateral acceleration, the precise turn-in, and the sensational grip. We have modified all performance-relevant components and linked them together intelligently for maximum driving dynamics," says Tobias Moers, CEO of Mercedes-AMG GmbH.

The Market Data

The Mercedes-AMG GT R celebrates its world premiere on 24 June 2016 at the site of the Mercedes-Benz World located at one of England's most tradition-stepped racing circuits: Brooklands. The car will go on sale on 21 November 2016, and the market launch in Europe begins in March 2017.

Alfa Romeo Giulia Quadrifoglio UK pricing and specification announced

UK PRICING for the all-new Alfa Romeo Giulia Quadrifoglio has been announced at a press conference today, June 23, at the Goodwood Festival of Speed. Powered by a new 510hp, 600Nm Bi-Turbo V6 petrol engine, with an eight-speed paddle shift automatic transmission as standard, the Alfa Romeo Giulia Quadrifoglio is capable of sprinting to 62mph in just 3.9* seconds and on to a top speed of more than 190mph while still being cable of up to 49mpg* on the official extra-urban fuel efficiency cycle, with low emissions of 189g/km*.

Built around Alfa Romeo's all-new rear-wheel drive architecture, the Giulia sports short overhangs, a long bonnet, muscular haunches and the longest wheelbase in its segment. Careful management of weights and materials has resulted in perfect 50/50 weight distribution across its axles, while the sophisticated four-arm Alfa™ Link rear suspension (with an Alfa Romeo-patented solution for toe adjustment) and new double-wishbone front set up have been specifically tuned to maximise its dynamic abilities and enhance driving comfort.

Also debuting on the Giulia is a new semi-virtual steering axis which optimises the filtering effect and guarantees rapid, accurate steering by keeping a constant caster trail in corners, while the advanced Alfa™ Torque Vectoring double-clutch rear differential system precisely controls the torque delivery to each rear wheel to improve traction in low grip conditions without having to run up against an invasive stability control system.

To obtain an excellent weight-to-power ratio and outstanding torsional rigidity, the new Giulia utilises an array of high-strength and ultra-lightweight materials including, for example, carbon fibre for the driveshaft, aluminium composite and plastic for the rear crossmember and aluminium for the doors, wings, engines (petrol and diesel), brakes and suspensions - including the front suspension domes and front and rear subframes.

The Giulia Quadrifoglio takes this attention to detail a stage further with its carbon fibre bonnet, roof, front splitter, rear spoiler and body inserts, as well as aluminium for the doors and wings. The braking system has been tweaked using aluminium elements, while carbon ceramic brake discs and front seats with a carbon fibre structural frame can also be specified as options.

Pricing for Alfa Romeo's advanced new super saloon will start at £59,000 OTR with an outstanding standard specification including 19-inch Quadrifoglio alloy wheels; sports front bumper with Alfa™ Active Aero; sports rear bumper with functional diffuser; sports exhaust with four outlets; Alfa™ Active Suspension and bi-xenon headlamps with LED DRL. Safety specification includes advanced Autonomous Emergency Braking (AEB), Lane Departure Warning (LDW), Blind Spot Monitoring (DSM), Alfa Romeo's new Integrated Braking System (IBS), Forward Collision Warning (FCW) and a rear-view camera with guide lines.

Interior highlights include special sports seats trimmed in leather and Alcantara with front seat heaters, steering-column mounted paddle shifters, a seven-inch TFT instrument cluster, Alfa Romeo's new Uconnect™ 3D Nav 8.8-inch infotainment system, DAB radio, dual-zone climate control, automatic lights and wipers and cruise control with speed limiter.

The Alfa Romeo Giulia Quadrifoglio will be available to order shortly with details of the rest of the Alfa Romeo Giulia range to be announced closer to the vehicle's on sale date.

formation on the current Alfa Romeo range, please visit www.alfaromeo.co.uk

Volvo Car UK's latest twin engine model builds on electric hybrid sales success

VOLVO Car UK is increasing its popular Twin Engine range with the addition of a new V60 variant that will appeal to business drivers thanks to its highly competitive economic and environmental benefits.

The V60 D5 Twin Engine offers business owners and company car drivers a unique combination of luxury, economy and tax efficiency.

Introduced to the market in May 2016, Volvo's V60 D5 Twin Engine has CO2 emissions of just 48g/km and qualifies for a Government plug-in car grant of £2,500, as well as a 100% first year writing down allowance and an incredibly low Benefit-in-Kind (BIK) rate of just 7% this year.

The popularity of Volvo's plug-in electric hybrid vehicles is demonstrated by the XC90 T8 Twin Engine's sales figures, which have already exceeded year-to-date sales expectations for 2016 by nearly 10%. From the total of XC90 T8s sold in the UK so far, 57% of them have been fleet orders, split evenly across the Momentum, R-Design and Inscription trim levels.

Commercial print and packaging business, Elanders UK, recently placed an order for six V60 D5 Twin Engines, also taking an XC90 T8 onto their fleet. "The D5 Twin Engine version of Volvo's V60 made such a strong impression with myself and the team that it instantly became the front-runner in our choice of new vehicles," comments Chris Hewitt, managing director of Elanders UK.

"At Elanders, we strive to operate our business in the most ethical, safe and environmentally responsible way. Volvo's Twin Engine technology combines the benefits of a pure electric drive, high performance and great fuel economy, making the V60 D5 and XC90 T8 the perfect choices for our fleet cars," adds Hewitt.

The V60 has been an especially popular choice with fleet and company car drivers since the introduction of the D2 Business Edition and the D6 Twin Engine models to the V60 family. The V60 D5 Twin Engine sits comfortably in the C/D segment, offering unrivalled benefits to the driver when compared with its class rivals.

Ford expands sporty ST-Line range with new Mondeo ST Line unveiled at 2016 Goodwood Festival of Speed

FORD today revealed the sporty new Ford Mondeo ST-Line at the 2016 Goodwood Festival of Speed.

The Mondeo ST-Line is the newest addition to Ford's recently unveiled ST-Line model range that delivers bold styling inspired by Ford Performance models and features sport suspension and body styling; unique alloy wheel designs; and sport seats, perforated leather steering wheel and alloy pedals for the interior.

The new model joins the Fiesta ST-Line and Focus ST-Line on display at Goodwood, where Ford is showing a range of performance vehicles from the Ford GT Le Mans race car to the new Fiesta ST200 hot hatch.

Fiesta ST-Line and Focus ST-Line are both available to order since earlier this month and are designed for customers who aspire to the sporty image of the Ford Performance Fiesta ST and Focus ST hot-hatch models – but do not require the full performance delivered by optimised ST engines and chassis with sports technologies.

"The new Mondeo ST-Line is our sportiest Mondeo since we introduced the Mondeo ST220 model in 2002," said Roelant de Waard, vice president, Marketing, Sales and Service, Ford of Europe. "Mondeo ST-Line adds another dimension to the broad Mondeo line-up that offers options from the fuel-efficient Mondeo EConetic and Mondeo Hybrid models, to the exclusive and upscale Mondeo Vignale."

The new Mondeo ST-Line is available in five-door and estate bodystyles and delivers Ford Performance-inspired styling that includes:

A honeycomb design for the upper and lower front grilles in high-gloss black; LED daytime running lamps with light tube styling and new rectangular fog lamps

Front bumper lip spoiler and sculptured side-skirts in body colour; a sports rear bumper with high-gloss black diffuser-style insert; silver tailpipe surrounds*

A black beltline beneath the windows and ST-Line exterior badging on the front fenders

A choice of unique new 18-inch alloys wheels with bright machined surface or 19-inch alloy wheels in Rock Metallic Grey

Sport seats with unique red stitching; a perforated leather ST-style steering wheel; and black interior door appliques

Sports gear knob for manual transmissions and ST-Line scuff plates

Standard rear roof spoiler for the estate, and an optional rear roof spoiler for the five-door

As with all models in the new Ford ST-Line range, the Mondeo ST-Line is available only with high-power engine derivatives that complement the enhanced driving dynamics delivered by sport suspension – lowered by 10mm.

Diesel engine options include: 150PS 2.0-litre TDCi with six-speed manual or six-speed PowerShift automatic transmission offering from 112g/km CO2 and 65.7mpg

180PS and 180PS 2.0-litre TDCi with six-speed manual or six-speed PowerShift automatic transmission offering from 117g/km CO2 and 62.8mpg

The Mondeo ST-Line will feature steering wheel-mounted paddle shifters when Ford's six-speed PowerShift automatic transmission is specified, and also is offered with Ford Intelligent All Wheel Drive.

The technology delivers a seamless transition of torque between all four wheels to provide a more secure footing on the road especially in slippery conditions and can adjust torque delivery up to 50/50 between the front and rear wheels in under 20 milliseconds – twenty times quicker than it takes to blink.

"With our new ST-Line range even more customers can experience sporty style and driving dynamics inspired by our most exciting Ford Performance line-up ever, that includes models such as the Focus RS, new Fiesta ST200 and Ford GT supercar" de Waard said. "This year we expect to sell 40,000 performance cars in Europe, a 50 per cent increase compared with 2015, which in turn saw performance car sales rise by 61 per cent compared with 2014."

* Depending on selected powertrain
 The declared Fuel/Energy Consumptions, CO2 emissions and electric range are measured according to the technical requirements and specifications of the European Regulations (EC) 715/2007 and (EC) 692/2008 as last amended. Fuel consumption and CO2 emissions are specified for a vehicle variant and not for a single car. The applied standard test procedure enables comparison between different vehicle types and different manufacturers. In addition to the fuel efficiency of a car, driving behaviour as well as other non-technical factors play a role in determining a car's fuel/energy consumption, CO2 emissions and electric range. CO2 is the main greenhouse gas responsible for global warming.

Cidermen on top after twin centuries

Wells-Burr knock sees Chard to gutsy win - Spurway half century boosts Ilminster

With the Cidermen

NatWest T20 Blast (South)

MIDDLESEX v SOMERSET (Thursday, June 23rd)
SOMERSET began life after Chris Gayle with a narrow defeat in a rain affected game at Lords. Batting first the hosts plundered what proved to be a match-winning 21 off Tim Groenewald's opening over of the match.

David Malan then proceeded to celebrate his call up to the England one-day squad with a superb 53 off 42 balls in increasing sticky conditions.

He took 16 off Jamie Overton's final over of the nine including an audacious ramp shot. Middlesex were eventually held to a challenging 92 for 3 from their adjusted allotment of nine overs.

He Somerset reply started well with openers Johan Myburgh and skipper Jim Allenby clubbing 29 from the opening 16 deliveries, but once they were split things became increasingly tricky for the Cidermen.

With 13 needed off Steve Finn's last over they got it down to six from two but fell just short.

Specsavers County Championship D1 Hampshire v Somerset

(Ageas Bowl, Sunday to Wednesday)

AFTER losing the toss Somerset, without Tom Abell who was missing with a back injury, were put into the field by hosts Hampshire.

An opening stand of 89 gave the hosts a good platform but a double strike from Craig Overton (3-52) saw Somerset force their way back into the game.

A superb spell from twin brother Jamie (16-3-42-5) ripped through the Hampshire middle order and they were dismissed for a below par 218 in the 67th over.

Somerset's vastly experienced opening pairing of Marcus Trescothick and skipper Chris Adams were soon split when the latter was dismissed for a duck.

Trescothick fell for 42 on day two but centuries from Johan Myburgh (110) and James Hildreth (*) left Somerset well placed at time of going to print.

CHARD surged up into the top half of the Somerset table with a convincing 88 run win at promotion-chasing Bridgwater.

But Scott Wells-Burr, coming in at number eight, struck a belligerent unbeaten 70 off just 49 balls which included seven maximums shepherded the middle order well with useful supporting knocks from Alex Hunt (22) and Chris Scott (17) enabling Chard to close on 189 as they were dismissed off the penultimate ball of the innings.

Bridgwater nudged their way to 36 for 1 before Wells-Burr (10-3-136-4) and Jon Dalwood (10-2-16-3) tore out the heart of the innings and the hosts were shot out for 101 in the 35th over.

Local win at last!

BROADWAY rally driver Gary Le Coadou and co-driver Carl Sorensen enjoyed a great weekend as they took their Toyota Corolla WRC to the Three Counties Stage Rally at Smeatharpe coming back home with the overall win.

The Bournemouth & District Car Club event were running the event which was included in two regional Championships and attracted nearly 60 entries from across England.

The conditions were far from good as the continuous rain had made the unused concrete surface incredibly slippery.

However, running Car No. 1 on the road meant the pair would be first to experience the conditions and understandably took a fairly cautious approach.

After two stages the Corolla WRC had managed to secure a creditable top three position but the duo were taken aback by the pace of the two crews ahead of them.

Both were crews that had travelled down especially to compete in the event from Durham and were unknown to the many competing drivers and organisers.

The next two stages were slightly longer at seven miles each and after their wake-up call Gary and Carl upped their game and narrowly grabbed the lead by one second. They managed to maintain their lead until the end increasing their final overall margin to 13 seconds and winning the event.

"This is my local rally and I've been trying to win this event for the past 18 years, but up until today have never managed it," said Gary at the awards presentation.

Honiton still unbeaten after whitewash

HONITON with John Pawley

THE Dartmoor League team continued their unbeaten run on Saturday with a fantastic 5-0 win against THURLESTONE.

Leading from the front was team Captain Rob Willey & Stewart Slater with a 5&3 win. The rest of the team all returned victorious and promotion is still the target.

Sunday saw all the big guns come out for the 36-hole CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP.

Mark Gillard was going for an unprecedented fifth win in a row, however it was not to be his year.

Leading after the first round was Junior Captain Ben Phillips with a gross 71 closely followed by Mark Tierney with 73 and Gillard on 74.

With Phillips and Tierney playing in the same group it was really match-play in the second round.

There all to play for on at the last hole and Phillips held on to win the overall competition by a single shot after shooting a gross 76 in the final round, with Tierney shooting 75.

Lowest round of the day however went to Peter Clarke who shot a fantastic gross 70 in the second round.

A special mention must also go to Jason Lovering who won the Nett prize thanks to a fantastic hole-in-one on the tricky 4th hole.

There was a mixed set of results in recent seniors friendly matches; a 4-2 loss at BUDLEIGH SALTERTON, a heavy 6-0 at DAINTON PARK but a 4-2 home win against TORQUAY.

The Ladies President's match against SAUNTON had already been postponed but the rain relented to allow the match to be played a little later than planned, and ended in glorious sunshine.

TORQUAY arrived with more men than needed so vice Captain Mike Sennitt accompanied the extra visitors on a round before the main competition.

On Tuesday afternoon over 30 players competed in the monthly Mixed Greensomes, with all the partners being drawn.

The clear winners with 39 points were Pam Knibb & Charlie Doherty. Jan Portlock & Brian Morrison were second on count-back on 36 points, with Hilda Hoepelman & Ken Wood third. In fourth place were Linda McLaughlin & Cyril Dann with 35 points.

A shot-gun start was the order of the day for the Ladies Wednesday's Stableford 3BBB competition, made up of three players in each team with one score to count.

The winners were Jenny Raison, Sally Chapman & Jackie Seager with 41 points, followed by Henrietta Bradshaw, Jan Portlock & Liz Wood with 40 with Tricia Swindell, Pat Hanes & Cherry Liell next on count-back.

The nine-hole competition, with the same format, was won by Sue Calver, Linda Northover & June Hodge with 16 points.

On Friday nearly 70 Seniors competed for the RON BLATCHFORD TROPHY.

Originally a competition of two rounds over two days this has been altered in recent years to be a one round Stableford contest.

Many found progress difficult in the damp conditions but not so newcomer David Woodruff. Winning Division Two, and the Trophy, with a splendid score of 39pts, he also achieved a handicap cut which will put him in Division One.

Second in Division Two was Phil Faulkner with 34 followed by Tom Chapman with 33 who got the nod on count-back from Tom Stanton with Ken Wood next with 32.

Division One was won by another newcomer David Morris with 37pts, followed by Max Pipe on 36 and Paul Ritchie with 35. Mike Stroud came next, then Alan Denny - all on 35.

Two's were achieved by five players; Dave Morgan, Ron Graham, Stan Squire, Ian Orford and Ron E Jones - all at the 2nd hole - they each won eight balls.

CRICKET ST THOMAS with Bert Robinson

HAVING been denied any golf on Monday due to the weather, the Seniors resumed their week on Wednesday with the SUPER SENIORS CUP.

This event is open to all members who have reached the age of 75 as a minimum requirement. In a field of 15, the competition was keenly contested with several players with similar scores at the half way mark.

However, Ted Bryden pulled away on the second half amassing 20 points. Result: Winner: Ted Bryden 34 points, runner up: Bryan Frost 32.

More poor weather on Friday failed to deter 46 members from competing in the JUNE QUALIFYING MEDAL.

The swirling rain made life difficult and in Division One only one golfer managed to break 80.

Life was a little easier for the high handicap players, but in that Division nobody did better than four over par.

Result: Division One - 1st Terry Rutherford 78, 2nd Phil Dewar 80, 3rd William Hughes 80.

Division Two - 1st Barry Singleton 74, 2nd Nobby Hodder 75, 3rd Clive Fisk 75.

AXE CLIFF with Peter Motson

THE Men's section early birds teed off at 5 am for their MIDSUMMER MADNESS competition which took the form of a Texas Scramble in teams of three, handicap being 20 percent of the combined total Medal format scores.

The mixed team winners were Simon Wellington, Jill Wellington & Mick Swann with a net 60.2.

Second place went to Simon Sweetland, Steve Anning & Margaret Kenchington with 61 and 3rd place went to Alan Kenworthy, Jim Whiting & Helen Kenworthy with 61.8.

The Men's team winners were Alan Vincent, Simon Vincent & Mike Chadwick with 62.6 and in 2nd place were Andy Gabb, Alex Gabb & Ron Bragg with 63.8.

The Men's GEES BOWL competition was a close run race with Mike Wickens taking the 1st place with a net 67, Jin Hong came in 2nd with 69 and Richard Gibbons was 3rd with 70.

Mike Wickens and Nigel Prichard both carded 25.

The Ladies section Ex-Captains competition was a close duel with Glenda Board taking 1st place with 35 points just edging out, Sandra Walker who was only beaten on a countback.

The Ladies stableford County competition was marred by heavy rain but for the second week running Pauline Willis came out on top with 37 points and received her 2nd handicap reduction in two weeks.

In 2nd place was Sandra Walker with 31 beating Glenda Board into 3rd place on countback.

The Ladies had a successful match against SIDMOUTH in the Sheelach Creasy competition with a 4-3 win despite the thunder and lightning rumbling around.

The Ladies also won their Devon League match at WOODBURY.

There were two wins for Axe Cliff, two wins for Woodbury and two matches were drawn but due to all the Axe Cliff players having to give between 2 to 10 strokes, they scored nine points by away advantage against Woodbury's 6.

The Ladies qualifying match for the County Express & Echo Foursomes will have to be re-arranged due to a sea mist causing calling all the players off the course before they had completed the first eight holes.

The Seniors Section home match against EXMINSTER resulted in a 5-0 win but unfortunately Exminster were two players short and had to concede the 6th match.

A notable 7 up with 5 to play win was achieved by the Dave Brice & Geoff Hughes, both playing off 19 handicaps.

Other team members were: Bill Polley & Neil Moorcraft, Edward Backhouse & Bob Cook, Rob Heard & Pete Motson, Mike Tomes & Mick Swann, Dave Sammons & John Ashbolt.

THE Club has had mixed results over the last couple of weeks. In the Wessex Mixed we have won two and lost two with wins against QUEEN CAMEL (91-65) and SEVERALLS by 15 shots, and defeats by MERRIOTT (52-94) and a close game with SOMERTON losing by nine shots.

We had a welcome win in the Somerset County League against Watchet B after two losses against YEOVIL B and WELLINGTON.

The Ladies lost their league game 32-45 against TAUNTON despite winning on home rink.

AXMINSTER with David Harris

THE Club has endured a rather difficult period with two matches having to be cancelled owing to lack of availability through County games and holidays, etc.

However, we have had some enjoyable matches starting with TAUNTON DEANE at home which we lost 43-58 with only John Packham, Brab Hallows & Margaret Crompton victorious (15-5).

We then beat a gallant CHARMOUTH team 120-45 at home with wins on all rinks; Brenda Edwards, Ken Webster & Margaret Crompton (39-7), Daphne Ryan, David Harris & Brian Clark (31-9), Morrison Brown, John Ellis & Budgie Hallows (31-13), and Margaret Brown, Brab Hallows & Les Clark (19-16).

Our final mixed friendly at home to TAUNTON BC resulted in an excellent 75-58 win with wins for Phil White, David Harris & Ken Webster (28-18) and Morrison Brown, John Hill & Budgie Hallows (22-17), whilst John Packham, Derek Pheby & George Mabon managed a creditable 12-12 tie.

In the County Foxlands KO Competition the men were unlucky to lose by just four shots against the strong MADEIRA club with the away rink of Alan Morgan, Tony Cable, Andy Spiller & Bob Sherborne excelling with a 17-13 win.

In the Over-60s Devon League we were unlucky to lose 29-30 at home to top-o -the-table TIVERTON BOROUGH with a winning rink of Howard Keep, David Harris & Doug Lookan (17-10).

Finally, we then suffered a bad 25-63 defeat at Pines Park.
